

It is important also to consider, that the surest means of avoiding war is to be prepared for it in peace. (Commentaries on the Constitution, 1833)

---

Joseph Story was a Massachusetts legislator and attorney before being confirmed as an Associate Justice on the United States Supreme Court, where he served for 34 years.